Ken Stern – Associate Director of University Audit

Ken joined Duke in 2011 as a principal university auditor. In his current role he helps to lead and coordinate financial and operational audits, advisory services and other special projects. He promotes utilization of data analytics and information visualization across the internal audit life cycle to assess risk, simplify engagement fieldwork, analyze root causes and perform targeted audit procedures.

Prior to joining Duke, Ken worked as a certified public accountant with Cherry Bekaert LLP in Raleigh, NC and worked in financial administration at North Carolina State University.

Ken holds a Master’s of Accounting from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a Bachelor’s of Arts from Skidmore College. He is a certified public accountant (CPA).
